

Christian Writers Conference ~ August 19-24, 2012

Water is a powerful metaphor for our creative lives.

Waves of inspiration sometimes envelop us, driving us to produce prolifically. At other times we are parched, longing for a refreshing splash to prime the pump of creativity. Sometimes water's cleansing power is what we need most. Clean up and polish your writing with the assistance of seasoned writers and editors and refresh your soul. The Green Lake Christian Writers Conference awaits you – as an experienced writer or a beginner; as a writer for the secular or the religious market. Immerse yourself in a welcoming pool of fellowship, music, networking and inspiration!

Marshall J. Cook
Editor-at-Large

Bruce Dethlefsen
Wisconsin Poet Laureate

Michelle Rayburn
Conference Musician

Cynthia Ruchti
Workshop Instructor

Wendy Morris
Workshop Instructor

Mary Pierce
Workshop Instructor

John Lehman
Workshop Instructor

Writers'
Program
Fee: $195
per person

Artists' Program
Fee: $40
per person

Lodging & meals are extra. Make housing arrangements with Green Lake: (920) 294-3323

Get all the conference details at www.glcc.org.

For questions or to register, contact Jan White: (920) 229-2418 or janet.p.white@gmail.com.

An invitation to artists: sketch, photograph or paint in the artists' room or en plein air and exhibit at the end of the week. Join the writers for optional programs & meals.

